1. Introduction

Social media encompasses internet technologies that facilitate online sharing of content by users (individual or body corporate), including but not limited to, social networks, blogs, videos, photos, wikis, online reviews, online check-ins and more. The number and usage of such channels, networks and media tools has been growing in leaps and bounds. Social media is an enabler for the bank's voice to become part of a larger conversation relating to banking services and the community at large that it purports to serve and has the potential to shape conversations and the communities we serve. The primary purpose of social media is to facilitate the building of communities. While the Bank can reach out to the customers (which includes potential customers as well) in the marketplace and share its sense of mission, the stakeholders and members of the public can maintain an ongoing conversation with the Bank. Popular social networks in common use are Facebook, Whatsapp, LinkedIn, Instagram, Youtube etc.

In a nutshell, the primary objective of Bank's presence on social media platforms is -

- i. To keep Bank's customers, stakeholders and general public informed about ongoing developments in the banking sphere, events about Suryoday Small Finance Bank Limited, its mission, products and services.
- ii. To listen to feedback / opinion of customers, stakeholders and general public on the bank's products and services.
